

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT FINANCIAL STATEMENT
FRESHMAN AND TRANSFER ADMISSION 2010

This Financial Statement is designed for undergraduate applicants who are not citizens or permanent residents of the United States. International students not requesting need-based financial aid must prove ability to finance their education at Rice; those requesting need-based financial aid must give information on their family financial status. Whether applying for need-based aid or not, all international applicants must complete this Financial Statement and supply the appropriate supporting documentation (in English and converted to U.S. dollars). Complete and mail the International Student Financial Statement to the Rice Office of Admission. Your application cannot be reviewed until this form, completed to our satisfaction, is returned to Rice.

RICE UNIVERSITY FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Source of Support	Assured Support 2010-2011*	Projected Support 2010-2011*
Personal, family, or sponsor's funds: (Bank affidavit and letter promising support required)	$ _____	$ _____
Scholarship from: _____ _____ (Letter of award required if assured support)	$ _____	$ _____
Loans from: _____ (Affidavit of support required if assured support)	$ _____	$ _____
Other, please specify: _____ (Letter from authorized official required)	$ _____	$ _____
TOTAL RESOURCES:	Sum of the columns should total $50,000	$50,000*

*This is a reasonable estimate. Fees are set at the end of each year. Documentation (appropriate affidavits and/or scholarship awards) must be attached as proof of financial resources for your first year of study. You should expect future costs to increase between 5 percent and 10 percent each year.

If your financial resources do not cover expenses for your full degree program, how do you plan to meet expenses beyond the coming year?

Please note that your application cannot be considered for admission until you have documented the above sources of support for your first year of study with the proper certification (i.e., a bank affidavit signed by a bank official, affidavit of support from each sponsor, an official copy of each scholarship or award). The United States Consulate in your home country will require the same documentation before issuing you a student visa.

We would also like to remind you that as an undergraduate international student you will not be eligible to apply for future financial aid, unless you apply for and receive such aid in the freshman admission process; also, you will not be permitted to work off campus (as stipulated by U.S. immigration regulations). Furthermore, Rice University cannot be held responsible for unforeseen family difficulties, political changes in your home country, currency devaluation, etc., that may alter your financial situation. PLEASE NOTE: Rice students are required to pay each semester's bill prior to the beginning of the semester.

I, (print name) _____, certify that the total amount of money that I have available for my first academic year of study at Rice University is $ _____. Further, I certify that the information provided above is correct and complete.
